Catholic Social Action at (513) 421-3131, ext. 239
Lunch will be Provided • Donations Appreciated

Purpose:

- 1. To recognize, appreciate, celebrate and enhance the connection among the various social ministries in our parishes, including social justice, direct service, and respect life efforts.*
- 2. To provide Catholic Social Teaching education, promote our social ministries, and provide resources for parish leaders to effectively bring Catholic Social Teaching to our parishes.*

Who: We hope that “collaborative parishes” will send representatives from at least 5 of these parish ministries: Direct Service, Social Action/Justice, Respect Life, Worship, Mission/Twinning, Formation, Pastoral Council, Pastoral Associate/DRE, and Deacons.

Collaborative Parishes (Parishes from which parishioners participated in the 2007 Greater Cincinnati Social Action Collaborative Congress on Feb. 1 at St. Joseph, West End): Good Shepherd, Holy Name, Immaculate Heart of Mary, Nativity, Our Lady of the Rosary, Our Lady of Visitation, Our Mother of Sorrows, St. Aloysius (Bridgetown), St. Andrew (Milford), St. Ann (Groesbeck), St. Anthony (Madisonville), St. Bartholomew, St. Clare, St. Columban, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, St. Ignatius, St. James of the Valley, St. John (Dry Ridge), St. John (West Chester), St. John Fisher, St. John Neumann, St. Joseph (West End), St. Leo, St. Margaret of York, St. Monica-St. George Newman Center, St. Peter (New Richmond), St. Robert Bellarmine, St. Thomas More, St. Vivian. Note: There will also be limited, additional space available for parishioners from “non-collaborative” parishes.
