

Social Justice in the Catholic Church: An Update from the USCCB Office of Social Development and World Peace

Presentation by John Carr, Secretary of Social Development and World Peace

On October 22, John Carr will be giving a presentation at Incarnation Parish in Centerville. John Carr, Secretary of Social Development and World Peace for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has spent 25 years in advocacy and Catholic social ministry leadership. For the past 10 years, Mr. Carr has assisted the U.S. Catholic bishops in implementing Catholic social teaching, engaging Catholics in social action and encouraging recognition of the moral implications of domestic and international policy. He previously was Secretary of Social Concerns for the Archdiocese of Washington. The topics included in his speech will be:

- Immigration, What Now?
- A Catholic perspective on the Upcoming Elections
- The Role of Social Justice Ministry in a Parish

Date: Oct. 22

Time: 7-9 pm

Incarnation Parish

55 Williamsburg Lane,
Centerville 45459

*Event in Parish Center

RSVP to Catholic Social Action by

Oct. 19th at 937-
224-3026

(No charge)